The head-quarters town, Cuddalore, of South Arcot District is located on the East at a distance of 11 K.M. and another major town Panruti, an important commercial centre is located at a distance of 15 Km. on the west. Nellikuppam is located on the main railway line linking Cuddalore and Villupuram and is well connected with other major town like Neyveli on the South West by road. the ceramic industrial town Vadalur is also very close to Nellikuppam on the South.

CLIMATE:

Nellikuppam has a warm humid climate with an average rainfall around 1500 mm. October and November months accounts for more than 70% of the total rainfall in the area. The maximum day temperature varies from 39.2 c in June to 29.6 C in December. While minimum temperature varies from 20 C in January 30 C in May. The town is humid and generally hot.

HISTORY:

Nellikupam was a small village with a few residential settlements surrounded by Agricultural lands. This would have remained a village but for the location of a sugar industry of EID Parry & Co. during 1845/46 which has altered the character of the place. The town has a linear development along the Cuddalore-Villupuram road. Nellikuppam attained the status of a Municipality in 1966. Agriculture is the predominant activity all around Nellikuppam town. The river Ponniyar passed through the town on the north of the Municipal area.

PLANNING AREAS:

The Government in its order M.S.No. 2316 dated 30-9-1966 of Rural Development and Local Administration Department declared Nellikuppam III Grade Municipality. On 9-5-1983 the Municipality was upgraded to II Grade. Nellikuppam includes 10 Revenue villages. The Municipal Area itself has been constituted as the Local Planning Area. Its extent is 21.49 Sq.Kms. Table-I shows the break up details of individual villages in the Nellikuppam Municipality. The population as per 1981 census was 40,431.

LAND USE:

RESIDENTIAL AREA:

It may be seen from the figures in Table IV that area under residential use is only 226.92 hectares, out of a total developed area of 2149 hectares. The residential density is very low. The centre area of the town is along the Cuddalore-Panruti road. Developments are mainly in two villages viz. Cholavalli on the north of the main road, Nellikuppam on the south. These two villages have developed as major residential area. The rest of the 8 villages are scattered and are surrounded by agricultural lands.

COMMERCIAL AREA:

Nellikuppam is not an important commercial town. It has some shops catering to the needs of the Local residents. Even local residents resort to Cuddalore or Panruti for their major shopping. Most of the commercial activity is along Panruti-Cuddalore road. Easy and frequent transport facility render Cuddalore and Panruti basis accessible for the residents of Nellikuppam. Out of the total extent of only 3.68 hectares is used for commercial purposes.

INDUSTRIAL AREA:

The area under industrial use is 18.42 hectares, which works out to 0.86% of the total area. There is only one major industry namely, EID Parry & Co. at Nellikuppam. Sugarcane is the raw material for this industry which manufacture sugar and sweets. Sugarcane is grown extensively in Nellikuppam and adjoining villages. About 2,000 workers are engaged in this industry. Few small scale ancillary industries have also come up.

PUBLIC & SEMI PUBLIC:

The area occupied by public purpose is 3.24 hectares. The Municipal office premises and some public offices are located here.

EDUCATIONAL:

There are two Government Higher Secondary Schools. Table-V shows the number of schools in Nellikuppam. The existing schools are adequate. Educational use occupies 10.49 hectares. Higher Educational needs of the population are met by Cuddalore and Chidambaram.

MEDICAL:

There is one Government Hospital with Out-patient facilities only and a maternity hospital with one bed. As there is a Government Head Quarters Hospital at Cuddalore 11 Km. from Nellikuppam, the people are utilising the facilities at the Head Quarters Hospital, since it is neat and very easily accessible.

TRAFFIC AND TRANSPORTATION:

Nellikuppam town is well connected by roads and railways. The town is well served by buses since it is located between two important towns. There is need for an organised bus terminal. The extent of land under this use is 84.18 hectares.

CHAPTER - IV

STRATEGY FOR DEVELOPMENT OF NELLIKUPPAM:

Nellikuppam is an intermediate town in between two major towns namely Cuddalore on the East and Panruti on the West. Nellikuppam's potential is mainly agricultural and it occupies the status of a town mainly because of the sugar industry of EID Parry & Company. Considering its location in between other important towns, it is unlikely to grow rapidly as in the case with some important towns in the district. It is sufficient if the town is planned for a normal growth through provision of addition areas for residential, commercial and industrial uses for the natural increase in population. The developments should be encouraged towards the north of the railway line to avoid crossing of the railway line to the extent possible.

CHAPTER - V

PROPOSALS:

Taking into consideration the limited scope of development for Nellikuppam, it is proposed to entire development main between the main road linking Cuddalore and Panruti and a suggested bye-pass road on the north.

In addition some development is contemplated on both sides of the road linking the main road and the sugar industry of EID Parry & Co.

ALLOCATION OF USE ZONES:

INDUSTRIES

Considering the existing Industrial development with the sugar industry of EID Parry & Co. some lands are reserved for industrial purpose in this area.

RESIDENTIAL USE:

The existing residential areas on either side of the main road have been showed as mixed residential zone, where cottage industies and small shops can be permitted. The other part on the north of main road i.e. Cholavalli is fully set up part for the residential use. The villages viz. (1) Vaidapakkam, (2) Thirukandeswaram, (3) Vanapakkam, (4) Mulikrampattu, (5) Keel Pattampakkam, (6) Melpadi, (7) Keel Padi, (8) Kudithangi are not proposed for any expansion. They will retain their rural characted only in the Natham area residential developments will be permitted.

COMMERCIAL USE:

The existing commercial uses on either side of the main road which cater to the needs of the town are retained as such. There is no need for any new areas for commercial purpose.
