NAVAPATTU NEW TOWN DEVELOPMENT AREA

Prepared by Tamil Nadu State Planning Commission

NAVAPATTU NEW TOWN DEVELOPMENT AREA

Public and Semi public

i. Public Offices

3.20 There is no important Government offices available except Sub Registrar's office. People have to depend such facilities available nearby in Tiruchy town which is in easy reach with adequate transportation facilities.

ii. Medical Institutions:

3.21 There are three primary health centers available at Navalpattu, Thiruverambur and Thuvakudi Town Panchayats with maternity facility. In addition, 5 public health sub centers are also available in Kuttappar, Suriyur, Valavandankottai, Thuvakudi and Asur villages. The Ordinance Factory and BHEL are maintaining separate medical units for the welfare of their own industrial workers only.

The rest of the population have to depend Tiruchy Town for major ailment which is at a distance of 15 KM.

This facility is much lacking in this field.

iii. Water Supply :

3.22 Navalpattu new town is served with protected water supply system by providing over head tank with street connections covering in most of the settlements. Thiruverambur and Thuvakudi Town Panchayats have provided house service connections. The source for water supply is from bore-well and open well provided in settlements.

In respect of BHEL Township (Kailasapuram) and Ordinance Factory quarters they have made their own arrangements for supply of drinking water from Cauvery river is the source. Besides the above, the BHEL management has provided public street taps in Thiruverambur and Thuvakudi in predominant places for the public.

iv. Drainage.

3.23 This new town has not provided any underground drainage system. Only open drains are provided in the parts of Thiruverambur and Kuttappar Town panchayats. The BHEL and Ordinance factory have made own arrangements for disposal storm water.

v. Electricity

3.24 All the village settlements are provided with electricity including street lighting.

vi. Recreation facility:

There are 3 permanent cinema theatre available for the inhabitants. BHEL have also significantly contributed by providing stadium, auditorium, park and playfields etc.

Transportation:
i. Road.

3.25 Almost all parts of the new town are served by internal road system. Among the transportation net work, the important corridor are Tiruchy – Thanajvur National Highway, Tiruchy – Pudukottai State Highway and Thiruverambur Keeranur ODR.

Tamil Nadu Housing Board has developed two 120' wide roads, of which one is branching from Tiruchy Pudukottai road to a length of 5 KM and another one interconnecting ordinance factory road and the above 120' road running on south in "ANNA NAGAR".

There is a way side Bus stand available in Thuvakudi Town Panchayat along the National Highway. Similarly in Thiruverambur also a way side bus stand is available but the location is far off from the development and thereby it is not put into effective use. The Town buses are plying to a radius of 25 KMs connecting all parts of settlements. Map No. 6 indicates the transportation system in the new town.

Details of Road net work is given in the Table No. 3.8

S. No.	Classification of roads	Length of roads
1	National Highway	17.7 KMs
2	State Highway	4.5KMs
3	District Road	21.9 KMs
4	Panchayat Union Road	63.6 KMs
5	Panchayat Road	31.4 KMs

ii. Railways:

On the northern part of the new town, two parallel railway lines passing through east west connecting Tiruchy town on the west and Thanjavur on the east. The metre gauge railway line is the very old one leading to Chennai and the broad gauge line which has been recently laid out in the year 1997 is serving up to Thanjavur only. There are 3 railway stations falling in this town.

A separate broad gauge railway line is running for BHEL, factory for transportation the goods. Similarly ordinance factory is also having their own railway line but at present is not in use. The transportation net work is shown in Map No.6.

The details of existing land use is furnished in Table No. 3.9.

CHAPTER IV

ANALYSIS AND ASSESSMENT

- 4.01 The north western boundary of the new town coincides with the south eastern boundary of the Tiruchirappalli Local Planning area. The new town extends over an area of 20.81 sq.KM. The predominant area is dry vacant lands spread out through out the town. The aim of new town development plan is to guide the growth of the town for future development in an orderly manner with a view to regulate and control the haphazard developmental activities by formulating different land use classification.
- 4.02 The economical base of the town is oriented towards industrial employment, trade and commerce and primary occupations. The new town, through situated on State and National Highway, most of the industrial and educational activities including BHEL, Kailsapauram Township etc., are linear pattern along the National Highway to a length of 3 KMs from east to west on the north of the town. There is no appreciable commercial activities except road side development in Town Panchayat areas such as Thiruverambur and Thuvakudi.
- 4.03 The major housing development Anna Nagar, Police Housing Colony, OFT quarters and HAPP quarters are located at the centre of he town around the ordinance and HAPP factory.
- 4.04 As per the land use survey conduced during the year 1999 the dry land occuppies 59% wet land 23% and rest of the 18% covering an area of 3692 hectares comes under the category of developed area. The main source for the paddy cultivation depends on canal and tank irrigation and thereby only one crop is cultivated in wet lands. The dry lands are rainfed area and depend on tank and well irrigation and thereby only a seasonal crop cultivated. In the rest of the period, the workers are engaged in constructional activities migrating to the Tiruchy town for their earning.

4.05 Vast stretch of dry lands are available for urban development such as housing, commercial and industrial activities. However after 1991, there is no industrial development.

Assessment of population and land requirement

4.06 The proposals contemplated in this new town is broad based considering the follows aspects.

1. The plan period for the development of new town is taken for a period of 20 years i.e. upto 2021.
2. Determination of space standards for all uses.
3. Assessment of land required for ultimate population of the planning area.
4. Zoning of land into broad based density and use zone for different uses and the framing of zoning regulations needed for controlling the development.

Estimate of Population

- 4.07 The physical environment of new town is mainly based on the size of population. In order to assess the future space needs for various categories of land uses, one among the component is assessment of future population.
- 4.08 The population of Navalpattu new town for the past decades was 55177, 81286, 122433 in the year 1971, 1981 and 1991 respectively. With a view to assess the ultimate population for the year of 2021, the population method such as geometric curve, arithmetical increase and incremental increases method etc., are taken into account. Further it is also revealed from the existing study that there is no industrial growth after 1991. Some of the layout developments which were approved during the year 1984-1987 has not yet been developed. Considering the existing trend of development it is ascertained that average incremental increase is more appropriate and hence it is taken. According to the population for the planning period is estimated as 2.00 lakhs.

Estimation of working force

- 4.09 The assessment of working force on various economical activity is the most important factor for planning purpose as is required to assess the future need of land for various categories of land uses. The participation rate of working population in Navalpattu new town as per 1991 census is 31%. The number of persons coming under the various age group by 2021 is assumed as given in Table No.4.1.

Table No: 4.2 OCCUPATIONAL PATTERN – YEAR 1991 – 2021

30 - 59	20	40000
60 and above	15	30000
	100	200000

4.10 In order to assess the working force, the age group between 15 to 59 is taken into account. Accordingly the total working force in the year 2021 will be 90000. The calculation of working force is based on the above assumption only. Table No.4.2 indicates the occupational pattern for the year 1991 - 2021.

Spatial requirements

4.11 The rapid growth of population in Navalpattu new town is due to industrial activities and number of educational institutions. Besides the Tamil Nadu State Housing Board is the public agency in the development of housing and SIDCO in the field of small scale industry. Apart that certain private agencies have also involved in the housing development.

4.12 The following are the use zones provided in the Navalpattu new town.

1. Residential 2. Commercial 3. Industrial 4. Education
5. Public and Semi public 6. Agriculture.

RESIDENTIAL:

4.13 In this town the residential area occupies 1228 hectares which works out to 33% of the developed area. At present the density in the New Town is 95 persons/hectare for population of 122000. The assigned population for this new town are 1.68 lakhs and 2.00 lakhs for the year 2011 and 2021 respectively. Assuming a net density of 250 persons/hectare the area required for residential use in the year 2021 will be 800 hectare.

COMMERCIAL:

4.14 The commercial use includes all commercial and business uses. The commercial area occupies 6.61 hectare which occupies 1% of the developed area. At present these commercial uses concentrated along the major corridor and further the local residents are depending the Trichy town. A minimum of 3 to 6 percent is considered essential for a town. However, Trichy town is very nearer and the village settlements are of scatterdly located and in Housing Board neighbourhood schemes certain shopping facilities are also available hence an area of 33.0 hectare is proposed.

Industrial use

4.15 Under this use, an area of 1447.30 hectares of land has been occupied by the industries which accounts to 39% of the developed area. These industries came into existence before the year 1991 and there after there is no progress in this sector. However Small Scale Industrial Development Corporation intend to develop a small industrial estate with an extent of 100 hectares at Valavanthankottai village. Except the above, there is no provision earmarked for industrial activities. However, vast dry lands are available and further industrialization may be encouraged as and when required.

Educational Institutions

4.16 Educational use includes schools, colleges, Higher educations including technical institutions. Under this category an area of 718 hectares of land which accounts for 19% of the developed area is occupied. The Tiruchirappalli town and its environs shows the imparting higher educational facilities and professional studies. Since most of the villages settlements are provided with elementary, middle and secondary educational facilities and hence no additional area is proposed for this category.

Public and Semi Public

4.17 Government, Quasi Government office, Bust stand, Community centre, Library, medical institutions, stadium etc., comes under this category.

The total area occupies 291.68 hectares which works out to 7.9% of the developed area.

4.18 In this town, except Sub Registrar office, there is no public and semi public uses prevailed. The inhabitants are depending the Tiruchirappalli town wherein the Collectorate, Revenue Department, Educational Department, District Court etc., are available.

4.19 However with a view to induce certain developments and vast Government land are available in this town. Hence an area of 90 hectares is proposed for Government office complexes abutting 120 wide existing road.

Agricultural use

4.20 The area under this use constitutes wet agriculture lands, irrigation tanks etc. There are 5 major tanks situated in Kuttappar, Gundur and Valavandankotai villages having an ayacut area 4820 hectares. This ayacut area has been preserved. These locations are indicated in the map.

Traffic and Transportation

4.21 Almost all parts of the Navalpattu town area served by the road net work as detailed in forgoing paragraph. An 120' road branching from Pudukottai road is running toward east and another 120' road on south ends with Navalpattue village which was already formed by the Tamil Nadu Housing Board in

ANNA NAGAR. There is a proposal to formulate an outer ring road in the Tiruchy and its environs within the planning area by the Tiruchirappalli local Planning Authority. With a view to link the newly proposed outer ring road in TLPA the existing east west 120' road (already formed by the Housing Board) has been proposed to extend towards east lies in Navalpattu, Thuvakudi and then turn towards north falling in Valavanthankottai village.

4.22 80' - 0" wide road is also proposed linking Tiruchy - Thanjavur National Highway and the existing 120' road for easy accessibility and to reduce the travel time.

Another 50' road is also proposed linking the existing ODR on the east and Tiruchy corporation road on west which ends with Keelakandarkottai village.

4.23 In order to provide, a bus stand facility for the inhabitants of the new town, an area of 4.0 hectares has been proposed along the proposed 120' road with a shopping complex on the south of 120' road.

Proposed land uses

4.24. The proposed land uses for the Navalpattu new town development area for the planning year 2021 is given in Table.
